3. The United States has provided the defendant with initial discovery materials, and the defendant requires additional time to review the discovery and to prepare effectively with defense counsel.
4. There is good cause to exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act as the ends of justice from such an exclusion outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Specifically, such an exclusion provides defense counsel reasonable time for effective preparation, taking into account due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) and (h)(7)(B)(iv).
5. Based on the foregoing, the parties jointly and respectfully request that the Court issue the proposed order excluding time under the Speedy Trial Act.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
